THE PULSE OF LONG ISLAND BUSINESS

LAMB & BARNOSKY PARTNER RICHARD ZUCKERMAN NAMED PRESIDENT OF SCHOOL ATTORNEYS

LAMB & BARNOSKY, LLP

On January 1, 2007, Lamb & Barnosky Partner, Richard K. Zuckerman, will become President of the New York State Association of School Attorneys. He follows in the footsteps of two other partners in the firm who have held this position. Most recently, Gene Barnosky served as acting President and President during 2000 and 2001.

As Lamb & Barnosky completes its 25th anniversary celebration, the firm is proud of Rich Zuckerman's achievement. His election continues the long tradition of the firm's commitment to legal scholarship and Bar Association work. The achievements of the firm's lawyers in this arena are unsurpassed on Long Island. For example:

Paul Lamb is a past President of the Suffolk County Bar Association, the founder of the Suffolk County Bar Pro Bono Foundation and the former Dean of the Suffolk Academy of Law.

Gene Barnosky is a past President of the New York State Association of School Attorneys and a past Chair of the Education Law and Municipal Law Committees of the Suffolk County Bar Association. His articles on Education Law have been published in the New York Law Journal and Newsday.

Scott Karson is past President of the Suffolk County Bar Association and has previously served as Chair of the Suffolk County Bar Association's Appellate Practice, Judicial Screening, Bylaws Revision and Legislative Review Committees. He has served as Managing Director of the Suffolk County Bar Pro Bono Foundation and is a Director of the Nassau/Suffolk Law Services Committee. He served as Chair of the New York State Bar Association Committee on Courts of Appellate Jurisdiction, a member of the New York State Bar Association House of Delegates and a Fellow of the New York Bar Foundation.

Sharon Berlin is a past Chair of the Nassau County Bar Association's Education Law and Labor and Employment Law Committees. She is the author of articles on employment issues, serves as co-editor in chief to the New York State Bar Association's soon to be published Third Edition of the treatise "Public Sector Labor and Employment Law” and was a contributor to the American Bar Association treatise “Discipline and Discharge in Arbitration.” Sharon also chairs the New York State Bar Association’s Municipal Law Section Employment Relations Committee.

Rich Zuckerman is the immediate past Chair of the Labor and Employment Law Section of the New York State Bar Association and has served on the Executive Committees of both that and the Municipal Law Section. He was an editor and contributor to the American Bar Association treatises “Discipline and Discharge in Arbitration” and “How Arbitration Works” and the New York State Bar Association treatise “Public Sector Labor and Employment Law”.

Fred Eisenbud has served as a Director of the Suffolk County Bar Association and as Chair of its Environmental Law Committee.

Joel Markowitz was founding Chairman of the Suffolk County

Bar Association’s Appellate Practice Committee.

Patrice Dowd Shenn has written on corporate law, lectured on not-for-profits for the Suffolk County Bar Association and served as an Assistant Professor of Law at Albany Law School.

Bob Cohen has been a frequent lecturer on Education and Employment Law issues for the New York State Association of School Attorneys, the Nassau and Suffolk Academies of Law and the Long Island Association of Special Education Administrators.

Rita Fishman Sheena currently serves as Chair of the Suffolk County Bar Association Education Law Committee and has lectured on Education Law issues for the Nassau and Suffolk Academies of Law.

Paul Lamb summarizes the firm’s philosophy:

“We are proud of Rich taking this latest leadership role. We believe that by actively participating in Bar Association and other professional groups we give back to the community and our profession as well as improving the reputation of the firm. We encourage all of our lawyers to attend conferences and seminars and to write articles and commentaries. We believe that this keeps the firm on the cutting edge as we move forward into our second quarter century.”
