...for Corporations, Municipalities and Individuals

Whether executing a complex real estate transaction or attending to the legal needs of Nassau and Suffolk counties, Lamb & Barnosky, LLP brings to bear a depth and breadth of experience that is unsurpassed on Long Island.

Since its inception in 1981, Lamb & Barnosky has grown into a "one stop," full-service law firm that specializes in representing high-net-worth individuals, corporations and municipalities. "We handle the legal needs of management leaders, from labor and employment concerns; estate and tax planning; banking; real estate; corporate; compliance work and commercial litigation," said Eugene Barnosky, managing partner. Additional areas of expertise include health care law, corporate and mortgage banking, and environmental law.

One of the largest and most highly respected law firms on Long Island, Lamb & Barnosky has a reach that extends beyond the Island's borders. For example, the firm is currently handling a large-scale real estate development project in Spain. "This is a complex transaction that involves interacting with lawyers from all over the world," commented founding partner Paul Lamb.

Closer to home, the firm represents the owners of a Manhattan boutique hotel in connection with a major repositioning of the property as a four star destination. The firm also serves as general counsel to one of the largest independent banks in the country. "We're not a typical suburban firm. We provide the sophistication of a New York City firm, but at more competitive rates," pointed out managing partner Robert H. Cohen.
